Testimonials

"Ms. Alisha L. Gordon, M.Ed is known to many as an educator, speaker, author, and mother to many. However, she is a woman that purposefully perseveres with patience to accomplish all that lies before her."
--LaTracey Copeland, CEO
Capstone Experience, Inc

"Alisha's words are not only powerful on paper, but when she speaks, it moves mountains. Her volume is set on inspiration, so each carefully thought out word leaves a lasting impression upon your heart. She's a powerhouse of language and literacy and she knows just how to write and say things in a manner that can touch the heart and move the spirit."
--Jason B. Allen, D.A. Printing

"Alisha is passionate, sincere, and authentic in all that she does. Whether it be teaching, writing, speaking to an intimate crowd of women or a ballroom full of guests, her authenticity creates warmth like a favorite blanket."
--Dr. Lee Collins, Ed.D, School Administrator

"Alisha spoke at The Fatherless Generation Foundation's "In The Midst of Single Parenting" forum. While speaking she delivered her emotional journey of "Finding the Pieces" with passion and transparency. As she conveys her failures and triumphs to the audience you sense the true impact her awakening experience with God has imparted upon her life. Her message is authentic and legitimate!"
